

ALAN GORDON ACTING STUDIO CLASS POLICIES

SCENE STUDY

(Wednesday, 7:00 – 10:30 p.m.)

Scene Study class is rooted in the Meisner technique and includes script analysis and interpretation, as well as cold reading and audition technique training. Meisner exercises are used to clarify subtext. Improvisation is used to help actors get a better grasp of material and understanding of the emotional and physical elements that are necessary to bring themselves to life. Students begin with a table read and breakdown of the script. Rehearsals with scene partners will take place outside of class and finished scenes will be put up, at which time I provide further feedback and analysis. Students are assured of working every week. If for any reasons you cannot make it to class, please contact your scene partner so that they can prepare a monologue that they would like to work on.

MEISNER TECHNIQUE

(Tuesday, 7:00 – 10:30 p.m. / Wednesdays, 1:00 – 4:30 p.m. / Saturday, 12:00 – 3:30 p.m.)

You may choose to join the class that best serves your schedule. I cover all stages of the repetition exercises, the independent physical activity, and emotional preparation. Sanford Meisner created these exercises to provide the actor with the means for developing and honing their instincts by removing the intellectual thought process from the work. Students are encouraged to work outside of class to build upon the work we are doing in class.
